SUMMARY OF PROJECT (ONE PARAGRAPH) PLEASE INCLUDE WHO, WHAT, WHY & HOW

I am requesting 130 student subscriptions to Scholastic's Scope, a language arts magazine. The magazine consists of 8 issues throughout the school year and is geared toward 6-8 grade students. We really enjoyed using this magazine last year, especially because it aides in comparing and contrasting texts in different forms or genres in terms of their approaches to similar themes and topics. (CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.6.9)

Scope magazine offers a variety of activities that will educate and engage students; such as, scaffolded activities at different levels, differentiated performance tasks, core skills workouts, popular editing activities, videos that support visual learning, and audio articles that will assist with challenging texts. This language arts magazine will help students gain a deeper understanding of the text, uncover layers of meaning, make inferences, analyze the author's purpose, trace arguments, reflect on how individual sentences and paragraphs contribute to larger ideas, and much more.

DETAILS OF PROJECT (INCLUDE PROJECT SPECIFICS, TARGETED POPULATION, COSTS, ETC.)

The subscription costs $9.70 per student, and we will need the 130 magazines for the entire Sixth Grade. The sub total cost would be $1,261. With shipping and handling, the total cost will be $1,387.10.

EVALUATION (HOW WILL YOU MEASURE STUDENT GROWTH)

Scholastic Scope meets Common Core State Standards. This language arts magazine supports anchor standards in English Language Arts. Using these magazines as authentic texts will also help meet key standards in Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening, and Language.

In each teacher's guide, there is a breakdown of which standards each article and activity supports.

There are performance tasks in each issue that are designed for students to demonstrate their understanding of what they've learned. For example, an essay, a video, a poster, etc.

I have discussed this with the following four colleagues:

NAME: _Sharon Angelucci_____

NAME: _Mellissa Sakimura_____
